Washington, May 9 .- Thousands of suffragettes from every State in the Union paraded through Washington's streets to-day to the Capitol, where they besieged Congress with petitions demanding passage of a resolution for constitutional amendment giving nen the right to vote. There were women in the "petition brigade," and marching with them were hun-reds of flower-garlanded girls, a norus of 1,000 strong, ten bands, diisions of suffrage cavalry, girl her-lds, members of many suffrage or-anizations and a delegation from the maylvanth Men's League for Suf-rade from early in the day. They stretched to the Capitol from Lafayette Park, the starting point of the pageant, where the suffragists began ther hours before the parade at which immediate passage of reported to the House was urged irlous speakers, and in a resoluproposed by Mrs. Ernest Thomp eton, and passed unanimously.

trom various sections of the country to-day paraded along Pennsylvania Avenue from Lafayette Square to the Capitol. There, 531 of them, representing every State in the Union, and assigned one to each Senator and Representative, presented to the members of Congress petitions asking the pass age of the Bristow-Mondell resolutional amendment enfranchising women.

Immense crowds viewed the procession along the route. When the Capitol was reached the bands were massed on the plaza before the east front, where they played the "March of the Women," composed by Dr. Ethel Smyth, of England, accompanying a chorus of 1,000 women, wearing robes of white, with green stoles and fillets of green on their heads.

FEELS PITY FOR COLONEL

Henry Savage Lander Discusses Roosevelt's Explaration Trip.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
Paris, May 8.—A. Henry Savage Lander, the famous explorer, in the course of an interview yesterday on Colonel Roosevelt's discovery of a river 1,000 miles long in the hinterland of Brazil, said:

"Colonel Roosevelt is possibly a very henest politician, but as an explorer I have always had great pity for him, it seems he has copied the principal incidents of my own journey. He has even had the very same sickness affecting the same leg. These things happen often to big explorers who read the books of humble travelers who have preceded them. As to his discovery of a river 1,000 miles long called The Doubtful, the work might be applied to the whole trip."

Convict Adjudged Insane

William Finney, a negro convict, was ad-judged insane yesterday in the City Circuit Court, and was committed to the asylum for the negro criminal lusane at Petersburg. Finney was convicted of criminal assault, and was sentenced to die in the electric chair. His sentence was committed to life than languagement, and later he became Insane.

91 Year Old Pioneer Thanks Duffy's

"Grand Old Age and How To Attain It" has been told hundreds of times by willing testimonials to the fact that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey actually delays the effects of old age and brings back the vivacity and versatality of youth to its grateful users. Here's another achievement to its wonderful record:

"In 1835 I landed in New York after a voyage of about eight weeks from Germany, then to Buffalo via the Eric Canal, staying in Buffalo a short time. We started through the woods for our future home, known as the 'Hyman Homestead' to this day. Our family consisted of nine day. Our family consisted of nine children, and not having much money to start with, we had the experience of the early pioneers. Later, as I grew up, I became interested in the maining business, farming, cattle dealer-worked hard for a good many years, and the famous John Miller, at that time one of the leading doctors in this section, said my time was short, so for the last 25 years or more I have been using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and I am thankful to say that I am well and healthy at 91 years, and hope to make a good record yet."—Conrad Hyman, Strykersville, N.
